If I were my parent I would...

- Let my child go out with which ever friend she wanted but let her know if one of them is not ok... and if she would not listen I would not stop her but I would not let that friend in the house.
- I would let my child stay up as long as she wanted on school nights but let her know that she must get up on time to catch the bus the next day.
- I would let my child come back ^{a little} late but make sure she comes back before 7:00 so that I would not have to stay up all night to serve dinner.
- I would make sure that she is home for dinner so we can have that meal together and talk about the day.
- I would let my child take snacks when she wants but not instead of meals.
- I would also make sure that breakfast, lunch, and dinner are at certain times.
- I would let my child choose what clothes she wants to wear, but make sure they are appropriate for her to wear.
- I would let my child listen to music but make sure that she keeps the volume low so that she does not ruin her ears.
- I would take her out shopping, or for a swim once in a while and tell her how much I love her.
- I would let her ask for gifts for her Birth day but have her tell me first to make sure she is not asking for something too expensive.
- I would let her skip school once in a while for a ~~break~~ ^{break}.
- I would ~~let~~ make sure she study's for tests, and if she does not like ~~to~~, I would make it fun.
- I would buy her interesting books so that she is not on the TV all day.
- I would play tennis, basketball, and soccer with her to make sure she gets exercise.
